

Houston Chapter Newsletter

December 2009

Website Make-Over – Stay Tuned!

One of the 2009-2010 Executive Board goals is to improve our website to make it easier to navigate and to enhance the “look and feel” of it. Please stay tuned for a website make-over in 2010! We will be making the changes over the holidays. Also, please note the Job Postings section is continually being updated with new jobs as they come to our attention.

Upcoming Events

December 4 Outreach KIPP Houston High School Science Fair Judging

A great opportunity to reach out and influence high school students to continue in their pursuit of higher learning. SHPE Houston is proud to have been participate in this annual event since its inception.

December 17 Social/General Meeting
Holiday Party at Cyclone Anaya's

The end of the 2009 year is coming and with it are the end of year Holidays. Please join us to celebrate at Cyclone Anaya's at 1710 Durham Dr. (NOT the one in Midtown). Please plan on meeting us there at 7PM.

January 9 Outreach Houston Hispanic Forum's Career & Education DAY (HHF-CED)

Volunteers needed to share their daily jobs with Middle - High School students:

Panel Session Volunteers needed to fill four one-hour time slots from 10-2pm

Scholarship Booth Volunteers needed as available from 9-3pm.

Please send emails to outreach@shpehouston.org if interested.

Members Wanted!

Just a reminder that we have a record to beat. Last year we had 73 chapter members! Currently we have 54 members that are officially recognized by SHPE National. To Join please go to <https://oneshpe.shpe.org/wps/portal/memberApplication>.

SHPE Holiday Party
Dec. 17 7:00PM
Cyclone Anaya's
1710 Durham Dr. @ I-10

Contact Isaac @ 713.922.3106
Or Officers@SHPEHouston.org

